BRIGHAM CITY.

Commendable Efforts for Sweet Charity - Local News Notes.

Special Correspondence. Brigham, Boxelder Co., May 17.—Be-lieving in the truism that charity should begin at home, a number of Brigham's citizens have begun a move-ment to raise a fund for Mrs. A. Me-Donald of this city, whose husband was killed some months ago while working at a mine near Three Mile. The plan is that a baseball game will be played, between a nine picked from the business men, and one composed of farmers. Tickets for admission to witness the game are being sold and a ready response is being met with.

'Modified Smallpox" Still Prevalent but Causes Little Alarm.

Special Correspondence. Payson, Utah Co., May 17.—James B. Manwille, an old resident of this place, died of a complication of abdominal troubles at 2 o'clock today. He was sixty-two years of age and was a faithful worker in the Church since he was a young man. A wife and three grown up children are row left of the grown up children are now left of the family. Mr. Manwille was an honest, industrious man, highly respected by all the citizens here. And as he was all the citizens here. And as he was a very strong, robust man until a month ago, when this complication arose, his death was quite unexpected. George Tedd was taken to Salt Lake City this week to a hospital to be operated on for a serious case of harnia. Mr. Todd has the sympathy of his many friends here who wish for his early recovery. New cases of "modified smallpoox" are constantly breaking out here. All these cases have been so mild that lit-

The entire time of the District court has been today taken up with hearing the divorce case of George Patten vs Babette Patten. The case has caused considerable interest on account of the prominence of the parties, who live at Payson. The plaintiff is a man of 72 years of age, and the defendant is 40. They were married at Manti April 27, 1898, and since that time, according to the evidence, have had many family quarrels and the plaintiff alleges cruel-ty. Mr. Patten has quite a large family by a former wife and is well off. Judge Booth took the matter under advise-

Conventions.

WILL BE ORATORY GALORE.

Senators Wolcott and Lodge Will Open the Ball at Philadelphia -Populist Plans.

Special Correspondence. Washington, May 13, 1900.-The fact that there is little or no opposition to the program provided for the different national conventions makes it quite easy for the managers ong in advance to arrange for the presiding officers and speeches which are to be made. It is well understood that the conventions are to be devoted large-ly to oratorical efforts in order to set the pace for the cambaign succeeding. gram pretty well arranged. It is well understood now that Senator Wolcott of Colorado will be the temporary chairman and that Senator Lodge of Massachusetts will be the permanent chairman. This will insure as a beginning two excellent addresses, as ning two excellent addresses, as the men selected are among the best ora-tors in the Senate and, in fact, stand at the head of able sneakers in the coun-try. Senator Wolcott, beyond all ques-tion, is one of the most pleasing tak-ers in the Senate, and Senator Lodge has a fine delivery and chooses his words and sentences with the judg-ment of a born orator. There is also ment of a born orator. There is also likely to be a speech from Senator Depew either in nominating or seconding the nomination of President McKinley. There has been some suggestion that Senator Beveridge of Indiana will also make a speech, but that has not yet been definitely determined. As McKinley was nominated four years ago by Senstor Foraker, it is not likely that the Ohlo senator will make the nominating speech this year.

IN THE POPULIST CONVENTION. The Populists have also been arranging for their convention, which occurs at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 15, Speeches will be made by two and perhaps three senators. Chairman Butler will call the convention to order and deliver a speech, and the man he names for the temporary chairman will also make an address. There has been a suggestion that this should be either Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota or Senator Harris of Kansas. By the way, only four years ago Pettigrew at-tended the Republican national convention as a delegate from South Da-kota and a month or two later attendkota and a month or two later attended the Populist convention, not as a delegate, but as an onlooker. I remember that the South Dakota delegation paraded the Populist convention with a banner inscribed, "South Dakota is the only State with two Populist United States senators." It is doubtful, owing to the fact that Senator Kyle has acted with the Republican party since. that with the Republican party since, that the same claim will now be made. Senator Allen of Nebraska is very likely to place Bryan in nomination at the Populist convention. It will be observed that in both the Populist and the Republican conventions at least will be a number of senatorial orators. IN THE DEMOCRATIC CONVEN-

Although it has not been definitely decided, there is a possibility that sena-tors will also be heard in the Democratic convention, and possibly one will be selected for either the temporary or permanent chairman. Among those who possess ability for such places and who are recognized good talkers are Culberson of Texas, Daniel of Virginia and Tillman of South Carolina, and, of course, a speech will be made by Jones of Arkansas, in calling the convention to order, and possibly in the nominating speeches some other senators will be heard. Very few mem-bers of the House have been selected for any of the conventions as most of these representatives are candidates re-election either on the Republican Democratic tickets in their respects congressional districts, and in order avoid competition with other prominen men they usually refrain from being se lected as delegates. There is some suggestion that Champ Clark of Missouri will be sent to the convention at Kan-sas City, as he is a picture-sque talker and could make a good speech in sec-onding the nomination of Bryan.

He is seen nearly every day in the shining headgear and also with a dressy frock coat. The frock coat is not incompatible with the South, because many of the senators and representatives from that section wear this garment. But the headplece of the average southern congressman is a soft, black hat, with a broad brim commonly called the "slouch" hat, "How do you make that silk hat go 'How do you make that silk hat with your constituents?"
